Section 1 – Target Market

An investor who satisfies the following is in the target market for the Trust:

- is seeking a return of 4.5% pa above inflation (over a seven year period);
- wants the investment manager to limit the risk of a negative return over a seven year period;
- accepts that the return achieved by the Trust may be significantly higher or lower than its objective;
- wants an investment that's diversified across markets, asset classes and strategies;
- wants the investment manager to flexibly adjust the Trust's asset allocation in accordance with its changing view of potential risks and opportunities in investment markets;
- understands that the investment manager has the flexibility to manage the gearing up to 40% to adjust exposure to assets;
- is looking for a pattern of returns that's smoother and less influenced by investment markets than a traditional diversified fund (that invests mainly in growth assets and has a similar level of gearing). A traditional diversified fund's returns will tend to be largely driven by investment markets due to its tight asset allocation ranges;
- intends to invest for at least a seven to ten year period;
- understands they may receive fluctuating levels of income;
- is an Australian or New Zealand resident; and
- wants to invest in any of the following ways:
 - through a 'platform product' (such as an investor-directed portfolio service or a 'wrap'-style superannuation product);
 - directly by application to us (provided the amount they want to invest in the Trust is at least $20,000; or
 - through 'mFund', a managed fund settlement service operated by the Australian Securities Exchange.
