

Financial Services Guide

Important Information

The financial services we refer to in this guide are offered on behalf of GWM Adviser Services Limited and its representatives, collectively referred to as “us, we or our”.

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to clarify who we are and what we do, and help you decide whether to use our services.

To make things simple, this guide explains:

- the services and types of products we're able to offer you;
- how we and our associates are paid and any other benefits we may receive;
- any potential conflicts of interest we may have;
- how we protect your privacy and handle your personal information; and
- how we resolve disputes, and what you should do if you have one.

Please read through the whole FSG, as it's full of useful information – and is also worth holding on to for future reference. And of course, if you ever have any questions, please contact us (please refer to the 'Contact details' section at the end of this FSG for details).

What else will you receive?

To help you make an informed decision about a financial product you generally will be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the product features and costs in detail. In certain circumstances it is not a requirement that you be given a PDS (including, for example, where you already have one).

Who is responsible for the financial services we provide?

An explanation of the fees and charges of the product provider will be outlined in the relevant PDS.

Other Benefits

Our Representatives who act as Relationship Managers and Super Consultants are salaried employees of the NAB Group and may be eligible to receive regular incentive payments in addition to their salary.

Incentives are based on a balanced approach, including the achievement of both sales and non-financial measures. Sales targets may include products issued by companies who are members of the NAB Group. The incentive that may be payable is up to 80% of the Representative's salary, subject to meeting required compliance and behavioural standards.

Non-monetary benefits

We keep a register detailing certain non-monetary benefits that we receive (e.g. benefits valued between $100 and $300, genuine education or training and information technology software or support). You can review this register by contacting us.

Please be aware that GWM Adviser Services Limited may charge you for the cost of providing this information to you.

Sponsorship

GWM Adviser Services Limited receives cash payments from product providers who sponsor and attend training presentations, conferences and/or professional development days. Amounts vary between product providers and your financial adviser does not directly share in the sponsorship payment; however, they may indirectly benefit as these payments subsidise the costs associated with these training and professional development events.

Distribution allowance

MLC Limited pays a distribution allowance to National Wealth Management Services Limited, a related body corporate of NAB, in respect of the distribution of MLC Limited's insurance products by licensees in the NAB Group (including NAB). This amount is not ascertainable at this time and will depend in part on the value of MLC Limited's insurance portfolio relating to insurance distributed through NAB and its related bodies corporate and the performance of NAB and its related bodies corporate against agreed annual performance criteria.

This amount is not shared with your Representative and does not represent an additional cost to you.
