Portfolio Management Changes to SGH20 and SGH Australia Plus

SG Hiscock & Company (SGH) is very pleased to announce that Hamish Tadgell has been appointed lead Portfolio Manager of SGH20. Hamish joined SGH in July 2015 as Head of Research of the SGH20 Business Unit. Hamish is an experienced financial executive with over 18-years in equity investment. Prior to joining SGH, Hamish was Chief Investment Officer - Australia, Global Investment Research, at Goldman Sachs.

Robert Hook will remain as Head of the SGH20 business unit. He will be broadening his role in the organisation to include Chairman of the SGH Advisory Board and will continue to act as an important mentor to the SGH20 investment team and the broader business.

Finally, SGH wishes to advise that Robert Tucker, Portfolio Manager, has resigned from the Company effective 28 February 2017. Robert Tucker has indicated his desire to establish a funds management venture. SGH wishes Robert Tucker every success in his new endeavour.

Following these changes, SGH20 will be adding additional research resources to the team.

Stephen Hiscock, Managing Director, SGH said "Robert Hook has achieved impressive investment performance with SGH20 since the Fund first opened in October 2004. Hamish Tadgell is a first class investment professional with an excellent track record, and his appointment will be instrumental in continuing the growth of the SGH20 business unit."
