What differentiates Antares?

- We believe that active management generates superior long-term returns because markets are inefficient.
- These market inefficiencies can be exploited, and excess profits captured by:
 1. Being style agnostic
 2. Gaining deep insight
 3. A systematic application – that includes integrating ESG and sustainability research
 4. Being patient

- Having the right team and a robust process is essential to achieving this.

How are the active* portfolios managed?

- Each Model is managed by a Portfolio Manager who is supported by a Deputy Portfolio Manager(s) with research and stock analysis undertaken by eight members of the team.
- Antares uses a proprietary stock selection process that is common to all Model Portfolios that include:
 - Information gathering
 - Financial modelling
 - ESG & sustainability analysis
 - Identification of high conviction (whether buy or sell) stocks
- Portfolio construction reflects each Model's investment objective and includes:
 - Stock Classification
 - Portfolio Construction
 - Risk management

Where do we invest?

Since 1994 Antares has managed portfolios exclusively focused on Australian shares.
