Important information about contribution types and your eligibility to contribute

If you need more information about contribution types, limits and your eligibility, please speak to your financial adviser or see the relevant Product Disclosure Statement or How to Guide on mlc.com.au

You are eligible to contribute where:

You are under 65 years of age.

You are aged between 65 and 74 and have worked at least 40 hours in a 30 day consecutive period in the current financial year#.

You are aged 75+ and the contributions are compulsory employer only#.

Caps applying to contributions made to your superannuation each year

If these contribution amounts are exceeded, you may be liable to pay additional tax, or have an amount refunded to you through the ATO.

A concessional contributions cap applies to employer contributions (including salary sacrifice) and personal contributions which you claim as a tax deduction. The cap for the 2018/2019 financial year is:

- All ages – $25,000* per annum

* From 1 July 2018, you may be able to make “catch up” concessional contributions if your total superannuation balance is less than $500,000 on 30 June of the previous financial year. Amounts will be carried forward on a 5 year rolling basis. The first year you may be eligible to utilise the carried forward amount will be the 2019-20 financial year (unused accrued amounts from 1 July 2018).

A non-concessional contributions cap applies to your personal after-tax contributions and spouse contributions made for you.

The cap for the 2018/2019 financial year is:

- Aged under 65 – $100,000 per annum, Bring forward arrangements of up to $300,000 and up to 3 years may apply^.
- Aged 65 or over but less than 75 – $100,000 per annum, Bring forward arrangements do not apply#.
- Aged 75 or over – non concessional contributions cannot be accepted#.

This does not apply for members who are applying and eligible for a Downsizer contribution. Please find more information at ato.gov.au

^ From 1 July 2017, the non-concessional contributions cap amount that you can bring forward and whether you have a two or three year bring forward period will depend on your total superannuation balance. Your total superannuation balance is determined at the end of 30 June of the previous financial year in which the contributions that triggered the bring-forward were made. You cannot bring-forward contributions if you exceed the total super balance threshold ($1.6 million for the 2018–19 financial year). Individuals with a total superannuation balance greater than or equal to the general transfer balance cap ($1.6 million for the 2018–19 financial year) at the end of 30 June of the previous financial year will have excess non-concessional contributions. For more information, visit ato.gov.au or speak with your financial adviser.

You should consider your contribution caps and seek further advice from your financial or tax adviser where needed.
